		Additionally, since it is difficult for stakeholders from would lead to enhanced diversity based on increased communication with different points of views.

transparency?		Conferences and other stakeholder events held in-person have been highly meaningful to understand the intention of the IAIS and to have conversations within and outside the reduction in opportunities for stakeholder engagement.

		Given that there may be cases where holding in-person events are more effective, depending on the developments believe that the Global Seminar and other stakeholder events currently held as virtual webinars shall be limited as virtual events. If holding a large event such as the Global Seminar in-person is not realistic, we would appreciate if the IAIS could provide other opportunities for ensuring in-person communication between the IAIS and stakeholders.

5. Are there other examples of best practice that the IAIS should consider?	<ul> <li>バーゼル委のやり方を参考にして、IAIS キーパーソンがスピーチを行った場合、その原稿をIAISウェブサイトに掲載してはどうか。一貫したストーリーの形で IAIS の考えや狙いがよくわかるようになるため、ステークホルダーとしては非常にありがたく、スピーチの場にいた聴衆以外にも内容が共有されることは透明性向上に資すると思われる。</li> </ul>	structure including its committees is very helpful and appreciated. However, in order to further encourage communication between committee members and stakeholders, it would be even more effective if the lists of committee members are published as well.  • We would suggest that the actual scripts for the speeches delivered by key IAIS speakers be published, as is the case for the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision. This would be highly appreciated by stakeholders, as providing clear understanding and objectives of the IAIS based on a consistent narrative. It would also contribute to enhanced transparency for stakeholders who were not present by sharing the content of the speeches.
